Infinis announces the launch of £275 million Senior Notes offering

London, 8 December 2009: Infinis Limited announced today an offering of Senior Notes due 2014 in an aggregate principal amount of approximately £275 million. The Notes will be secured by a first-priority security interest in the share capital of Infinis Limited. Prior to the closing of the offering, Infinis Limited will be re-registered as Infinis plc, a public limited company, and Infinis plc will be the issuer of the Notes.

The net proceeds of the offering will be used to repay its syndicated loan facility and certain shareholder and related-party indebtedness.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any securities in the United States, and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any state or country. The securities may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or an applicable exemption from registration requirements. No public offering of securities will be made in the United States. This press release is being issued pursuant to and in accordance with Rule 135e under the Securities Act.

This press release may include projections and other "forward-looking" statements within the meaning of applicable securities laws. Any such projections or statements reflect the current views of Infinis about further events and financial performance. No assurances can be given that such events or performance will occur as projected and actual results may differ materially from these projections.
