Infinis Limited considers accessing capital markets

London, 3 December 2009: Infinis Limited (“Infinis”) announces today that it is considering accessing the capital markets for the purposes of repaying its syndicated loan facility and certain other shareholder and related-party indebtedness.

Infinis’ decision whether or not to complete any capital raising will be subject to a number of factors, including liquidity and market conditions in the capital markets. There can be no assurance that any capital markets transaction will be completed.

Infinis is one of the largest generators of renewable electricity in the UK. Its main business activity is the generation of electricity from landfill gas. In the twelve months ended March 31, 2009, Infinis generated approximately 8% of the total renewable electricity generation in the UK, equivalent to approximately 0.5% of total electricity consumption in the UK.
